

The "Singer" is a Friend in Need

Whenever there is quick sewing to be done, whenever there is something to be mended in a hurry, a Singer Sewing Machine or a Wheeler & Wilson can be relied upon to do it, and do it satisfactorily.

These machines do not break down just when they are needed, like the cheaply constructed, job-lot, make-shift machines sold are carefully manufactured and honestly assembled by the most reliable and responsible sewing machine manufacturers in the world. They are built to last a lifetime, and to do all kinds of sewing, whether the quick, emergency kind or delicate, intricate work, perfectly and easily.

Singer Sewing Machines Also the Wheeler 2 Wilson

For your protection these machines are sold only at Singer stores or by Singer salesmen-never through dealers or

EY THESE SIGNS YOU MAY KNOW AND WILL FIND SINGER STORES EVERYWHERE

SINGER SEWING MACHINE CO.

927 F. Street N. W.

Firm Sold $1,500,000 in Stocks Backed by Mergenthaler Invention. NEW YORK, October 25,-The Mergenthaler-Horton Basket Machine Company, which sold nearly $1,500,000 worth of stock in New York, Philadelphia and the surrounding country, is in difficulty, and the office of the company at 1 Montgomery street, Jersey City, has been stripped clean of all the books and papers of the Incidentally, Charles R. Barlow, the treasurer of the company and one of the founders, has vanished, and is believed to have been responsible for the disappearance of all the records. S. B. Parkhurst, the president, of New Haven, Conn., who has several reasons for wanting to find the missing treasurer, has been able to get no trace of him.

Mr. Parkhurst, who runs a lithograph-ing business at New Haven and was wellport Barlow in his aims and ambitions and through indersing his personal notes to a great amount. Barlow went away a couple of days before a number of these notes fell due. The company was incorporated at $10,000,000, the par value of the stock being $1.

The basket machine was a combination ment. of an invention by Ottmar Mergenthaler and Emmett Horton, Mr. Mergenthaler having died before he could finish his invention. Then, in order to get a clear field for the patent, the company had to buy out the Robinson Basket Company,

The company was headed at first by H. I. Warner, the patent medicine man. Charles R. Barlow as treasurer and Sidney B. Whitlock was secretary. and Whitlock had been in the advertising business previous to the appearance of the pasket company.

By means of the advertising enough money was collected by stock sales to build a $750,000 plant in Paducah, Ky. The beginning of the company's troubles came last spring, when action was start-ed by one of the stockholders which finally put the plant in the hands of a re-

Baltimore Wife Declared Insane.

BALTIMORE, Md., October 25 .- A lunacy jury summoned by Sheriff Padgett returned a verdict yesterday adjudging Elfa E. Webster insane. Mrs. Webster was brought before the jury by her husband, James W. Webster, Huntingdon avenue and 29th street, after she had filed a bill in circuit court No. 2 asking for a divorce from him, alleging cruelty. Mr. Webster had his wife sent to the Shepard-Pratt Hospital on the certificate of two well-known physicians. When Mrs. Webster's counsel, Attorney Harry on a writ of habeas corpus her husband The case was abandoned after a number of witnesses had been examined. Mrs. Webster was returned to the institution. Her bill for divorce will, accordingly, be

Society of Friends' Yearly Meeting.

BALTIMORE, Md., October 25 .- The yearly meeting of the Society of Friends will begin tomorrow at the Friends' Meeting House, Laurens street and Park place, and will be attended by Friends from Pennsylvania, Virginia and the Maryland cities and counties. The convention will close Thursday. Tomorrow afternoon the ministers and elders will gather, while at right all the visiting Friends will be welcomed at a reception, reliewing which there will be a number of committee meetings, including these on education and program. Sunday there will be three services—at 10 a.m., Sunday school in the afternoon and other ward trip, with a services at # p.m. Monday, Tuesday and they would mea Thursday there will be business meet- nearly 620 knots.

BASKETMAKERS IN TROUBLE. ings, while on Monday evening there will be an educational meeting, at which an address on the "Education of the Whole Man" will be made by Mr. Henry Wilbur of Philadelphia. At a philanthropic meet-ing to be held Tuesday evening there will he several addresses by prominent speakers, while on Wednesday afternoon at the Sunday school conference an address will be made by Dr. Jesse H. Holmes of Swarthmore College. Business meetings will close the convention on Thursday.

INSURANCE MAN CONVICTED.

Vice President Gillette Found Guilty of Perjury in Third Degree.

NEW YORK, October 25 .- The first coniction in the cases based on the dislosures in the legislative investigation of insurance affairs in 1905-1906 was obtained by the district attorney's office last night, when a jury in the criminal branch of the supreme court found Dr. Walter R. Gillette, former vice president of the fing business at New Haven and was well-to-do before he was pulled into the Mer-genthaler-Horton Company, is said to find the fortune in trying to sup-have lost a small fortune in trying to sup-dict was accompanied with a recommen-

Dr. Gillette moved for a certificate of easonable doubt and an arrest of judg-nent. Justice Dowling announced that he would hear the motion next Monday, and for the meantime remanded Dr. Gilette to the Tombs. During the trial the lefendant had been at liberty under $10,-100 bonds. The jury was out one hour and twenty-five minutes. In the interval Dr. Gillette chatted with his son and iid not betray his state of mind. When alled to face the jury, however, he paled erceptibly, the pallor giving way to a ush as he heard the verdict. For a mo-ment he appeared surprised, but prompty recovered himself. He was accom-anied by the son and daughter to the strance to the Tombs. Gillette is sixty-seven years of age nd is well known in medicine, from the practice of which he retired some years He was born in Philadelphia. specific charge upon which Dr. Gilette was found gullty was that he had estified falsely before the grand jury on ay 24, at which time he was vice presiof the Mutual. The indictment alged that at that time, under examinaion by District Attorney Jerome, he tated that certain moneys in the Dobbs ry Bank were his personal funds, and it subsequently, under a cross-examiation, he had admitted that these funds were really the property of the Mutual

BEATS THE EASTERN RECORD.

The Lusitania Makes the Run in Four Days Twenty-Two Hours. QUEENSTOWN, October 25. - The unard Line steamer Lusitania arrived ere last evening at 9:30 o'clock, breakng the best previous eastern record, which, from New York to Queenstown, was 5 days, 4 hours and 19 minutes. This the Lus'tania made herself on her est run from New York. The Lustania cleared Sanday Hook lightship at :44 p.m. Saturday last. Her time of eassage has been 4 days, 22 hours and 16 minutes.

This is about six hours beter than the ast eastward-bound passage of th teamer. The Lusitania experienced ough weather and was obliged to slow lown her engines. Her daily runs were 105, 570, 540, 532 and Thursday to noon Her average speed for the entire distance was 23.61 knots.

An official statement issued by the Cunard company points out that traveling against the sun these figures mean exceptionally fine steaming. On a west-ward trip, with a twenty-five-hour day, they would mean a daily average of

Getting on

A quick run and jump—a sudden throwing of all weight on the arch of the shoe, sending a shock throughout its length.

The rigid arch of the comfortable Crossett supports the instep, and does even more -it absorbs all sudden jars like this and saves the

Call on our agent in your city, or write us LEWIS A. CROSSETT, Inc., No. Abington, Mass.

THE MIDNIGHT GUEST.

A DETECTIVE STORY BY FRED M. WHITE, Author of "The Crimson Blind," "The Corner House," Etc.

(Copyright, 1907, T. J. McBride & Son.)

CHAPTER XLIII.

The Whole Truth. He mumbled something that was quite impossible to understand. But, at the same time, he recognized the peril of his position. There was a ghastly green myself. You sneaking rat!" tinge on his face, his hand trembled. "I couldn't help myself," tinge on his face, his hand trembled. Dallas regarded him pleasantly enough. There was nothing harsh or stern in the detective's manner. His quiet air of assured triumph struck a greater terror into Stevens than any sternness would have done. The shabby little man wriggled about in his seat, looking very much like explained. "I followed Stevens here, a rat behind the bars of a cage. "Take your time." Dallas said, quietly.

"You will find in the long run that it w.ll pay you a great deal better to tell the "I have always told the truth," Stevens

"Up to a certain point, yes. But you didn't go far enough. For instance, you might have told the coroner that you saw Mr. Delahay's lady visitor a second time. You might have gone further and told the court that Mr. Delahay had other visitors long after his first one had gone You see, that would have helped the police a good deal, and it would have e" feetually cleared an innocent lady whom we suspected of having a hand in the murder. Now, who was it that called at ow should I know?" Stevens said, sulat, my good man, is for you to say. It so happens that you are waiting here for the individual in question this very

The greenish hue crept over Stevens' face again. He could only stare at the speaker with open-mouthed astonishment. allas' manner grew a little more stern

"You will stay where you are," he said,
"and with these two gentlemen I will go into the next box. I think I can trust you not to betray our presence there. In act, your safety, to a large extent, depends upon your actions in the hext hour or so."

"I have done nothing," Stevens burst out, "I swear I have done nothing. I had no hand in it at all."

"That I quite believe," Dallas replied. It was afterward that you began to se your way to make some money out of it. And now let me tell you something. You don't deserve any consideration at my hands, but I am prepared to spare you as far as possible. Oh, I know you will play me false at the first chance. But let me tell you, I know all about your visit to your friend Perks of Cannon Green. I know how you disposed of certain stolen goods which, until the night of the mur-der, were in the possession of Mr. Louis Delahay. After that, I don't think you will deem it prudent to try any of your nonsense with me." Dallas turned away, and, with his two companions, entered the next box. It was gloomy enough there, so that their presence was not likely to be detected by any one who came in. Walter turned eagerly to Dallas. His curiosity was aroused now. He wanted to know how it was that the inspector know next. that the inspector knew so much.

"It was more conjecture on my part," dict was accompanied with a recommen-iation for mercy. The maximum penalty for this degree of perjury is ten years' mprisonment.

Upon the report of the jury counsel for

The landlord of this public-house has

It was precisely as Dallas had said. Some twenty minutes later a man lounged nto the bar and called for something to drink. He seemed to suspect nothing, he those who were instrumental in making whistled some music-hall air merrily. The man was fairly well dress d. A gaudy ternational secretary of the association, cap on the back of his head disclosed a who had charge of the campaign, will be plaster of greasy curls on a peculiarly low and retreating forehead. The stranger might have been a street hawker in his and the contract calls for its completion. best clothes. Certainly he d.d not suggest a pro essional criminal. He swallowed his drink and strolled toward the fireplace without noticing the three occupants in the recesses of the box. Then he caught sight of Stevens and took a seat by his side. The conver-sation was conducted in whispers, but it was possible for the listeners to hear most of what was taking place.

"Well, did you manage it all right?" the newcomer asked. "Don't trouble about that," Stevens muttered. "But I didn't get half as much as you thought I should. Forty pounds was the price my man offered, and he wouldn't give another penny."
The newcomer growled something inco-erent. Then there was a chink of money tealthily passed, followed by a volley of oaths from Stevens' companion here, John. I wish I had never met you hat night, when you told me all about he house in Fitzjohn Square. I wake up in the night in a bath of cold sweat the risk of being strung up for it, bli'me. And me ready to get married, and the date fixed and all. Lord, if I could only see my way to get clear of it all. Twenty quid against a man's life. You go and try it yourself and see what it's like, my ancient pal. When I recollect as it was ancient pal. When I recollect as it was you as told me of the broken catch on the studio window, I could bash your face in, I could. I can't forget it. I have tried drink, but that is no use. You can stave it off for an bour or two, and then it comes back worse than ever. And all for the sake of twenty guid!"

the sake of twenty quid!" Stevens made no reply. He sat there quivering from head to foot, sick with suspense and anxiety, wondering in his mind when Dallas was going to strike. At any other time the ghastly color of his face would have attracted the attention of his companion, but the other man wa; occupied with his own thoughts. He was staring moodily into the fireplace.

"Don't talk about it," Stevens managed to say at length. "If you had told me about it at the time I never should have touched that stuff. But I had got it in my pocket, and I had given my word beever I had heard of the murder. And low was I to know that there was a chance of Mr. Delahay coming back? If anything happens you will say as much for me, won't you?"

Stevens asked the question with trembling eagerness. He made his request more with a view to impressing Dallas than anything else. But the culprit by his side, apparently, had no idea of the drift of the question, or why it was a ked. you have nothing to fear," he said.

ly. "At lea t, it is all right as long as that stuff isn't traced. But what is the use of stting here jawing like this? Let us go to a music ball, or theater or something of that kind-anything to get away from one's thoughts. Every now and again—"

The speaker rose to his feet, and Steven: dragged his trembling limbs from the settee. At the same moment Dallas appeared upon the scene and touched the tranger lightly on the shoulder.

"I hope you know who I am," he said. The other man heaved a sigh, which sounded almost like relief. Just for a moment all the blood left his face. Then he fecovered himself and looked at Dallas

"Dalla; of Scotland Yard," he said. The Pers'ans have a different name for leader give them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restrictions and unfair burdens which existing liquors, with the result that the son became unmanageable, wild and disorderly. A still further result, it is given them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restrictions and unfair burdens which existing liquors, with the result that the son became unmanageable, wild and disorderly. A still further result, it is given them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restrictions and unfair burdens which existing liquors, with the result that the son became unmanageable, wild and disorderly. A still further result, it is given them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restrictions and unfair burdens which existing liquors, with the son became unmanageable, wild and disorderly. A still further result, it is given them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restrictions and unfair burdens which existing leader give them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restrictions and unfair burdens which existing leader give them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restrictions and unfair burdens which existing leader give them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restrictions and unfair burdens which existing leader give them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restriction and unfair burdens which existing leader give them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restriction and unfair burdens which existing leader give them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restriction and unfair burdens which existing leader give them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restriction and unfair burdens which exist a second of the leader give them an opportunity effective-ly to protest against the hurtful restriction and unfair burdens which exists a at the residence of Mr. Louis Delahay, in Fitzjohn Square."

"Yes, that's right enough," Cooney said. Stevens stared helpiessly at the speaker. "I am not going to complain. Upon my He tried to speak, but his jaw dropped. word I am glad it is over. If you just let me have a cigarette and another drink I'll tell you all about it; and a nice sort of pal you are, Stevens. Oh, I'd give something to have you for five minutes to whined. "Upon my word, I couldn't. Be-sides, what does it matter? Inspector Dallas knows all about it. He even knew swear he never had a single hint from Isn't that so, inspector? Am I tell-knowing quite well that he was waiting The assurance seemed to be sufficient, for Cooney asked no further questions. Nor was it for Dallas to explain that, till a few moments ago, he had no id a of the real identity of the man whom Stevens had come to meet. Cooney took a long whiff of his cigarette and pitched the end of it into the fireplace. "I am quite ready for you now," he said,

"and I'll tell you all about it if you like.

Oh, I know everything I say will be taken down in evidence against me, but it is little I mind that. I plundered the dead body of Mr. Delahay, all right. He was dead when I got there, and if I didn't tell you so, you overheard enough to jug me half a dozen times. Don't look at me like that Mr. Dallas, sir. Don't think as I had any hand in the murder, sir. May I die if I a'n't as innocent of that as a the studio in the early hours of the 'Better not say too much," Dallas suggested. "Really, I am not curious to hear. And now, come along. You can have a cab if you like. Perhaps you may come out of this better than you expect-if you are only candid.' "Don't be in a hurry," Cooney pleaded.

"I'll tell you everything, sir, I will-straight-everything from start to finish Sit down and listen to me, and you need not be afraid that I shall try and escape. I don't want to.

(To be Continued Tomorrow.)

ANOTHER YEAR OF EXPOSITION Committee Will Likely Make a Favorable Report.

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION, October 25.-President Tucker yesterday appointed George F. Adams of Old Point and E. T. Lamb and Barton Myers of Norfolk members of the committee that will take up the question of keeping the exposition open for another year. They will make their report to the directors November 6. The plan has met with much favor among exhibitors, a number calling upon Director General Martin and assuring him that they would be willing to remain, but question that will have to be settled will be whether there will be any charge for space and whether the amount will be report in favor of the plan.

BALTIMORE Y. M. C. A.

Corner Stone Exercises to Be Held Afternoon of November 21.

landlord of this public-house has laying of the corner stone of the new never got into trouble as yet. But we know perfectly well that a good deal of stolen property is disposed of, and when I saw Stevens turn in here things became I saw Stevens turn in here things became He was coming to meet lin streets. The exercises will be held at an accomplice and hand over his share of 3 o'clock on the afternoon of Thursday, the money which he had obtained from Perks. Before half an hour is over the hour is over th real culprit will be here. Please stop talking directly anybody comes in. It will the stone will be set in place by Mr. spoll everything if our presence here be- Francis A. White, president of the association, and one of the largest contributors to the fund for the new building. Following the exercises a banquet will be held at one of the hotels, at which all He the campaign for a new building a success will be present. Mr. C. S. Ward, inone of the guests, and will respond to a and the contract cal's for its completion by next August.

The international convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of North America will convene in Washington on the day following the laying of the corner stone here, and it was with the idea of getting a number of the great workers who will attend the convention to come to the corner stone laying that the date was decided upon.

ALLIS-CHALMERS COMPANY. The Annual Report Shows an Operating Deficiency.

NEW YORK, October 25 .- Stockholders of the Allis-Chalmers Company, at their annual meeting in Jersey City yesterday, "The game isn't worth playing." he nuttered. "Fancy, twenty quid for a job like that, and the chance of hanging into the bargain. I wish I had never gone and Cornelius Vanderbilt of New York, and William W. Allis and Layman F. and William W. Allis and Layman F. Bower of Milwaukee. The annual report of the controller showed an operating deficit for the year ending June 30 of when I think of it. Fancy going into $387,000. The profit and loss sheet on what you take to be an empty house and finding a dead body staring up in your face from the floor. Yes, I took his watch and chain all right, but I don't know where I got the pluck from. Took about $490,000. that date showed a deficit of $229,816.

President W. H. Whiteside, in his report, said that the year's result was not so satisfactory as had been expected. He attributed it to the strike of molders, failure of contractors to complete buildings and delayed delivery of equipment for COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS.

Ask Public Service Board for Mileage Books at Two-Cent Rate ALBANY, October 25.-The commercial travelers of the state are determined to follow up their request, filed with the upstate public service commission on July 30, asking the commission to take the necessary action to compel the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company to issue 500-mile mileage books at the two-cent mileage rate. They filed re- Niagara frontier met in the office of the newal papers this week through Daniel Switchmen's Union of North America Gray of Syracuse, chairman of the legis- here and decided to present next Monlative committee of their organization. Mr. Gray was in Albany yesterday and the various roads for an increase in said that the commercial travelers de-Central and other roads. The mileage of 10 cents an hour. The companies in the success of Henry M. Whitney and chaser and members of his family. The commercial travelers would also ask the commission to induce the trunk lines in the success of Henry M. Whitney and the democratic ticket in Massachusetts this year. Among other things he says:

"I suppose as usual you are in the thick this state to issue sent 1,000-mile mileage books good on all roads.

Wants $5,000 for Son's Injuries. BALTIMORE, Md., October 25,-A states, is a saloonkeeper. It is alleged that Williams' son, who is under twenty-one years of age, was in the employ of Wright, and that last July the latter gave or sold to him a large quantity of intoxicating liquors, with the result that the son became unmanageable wild and probation.

WILL ADVANCE MONEY

STOCKHOLDERS TO AID MIT-CHELL MINING COMPANY.

At a meeting of stockholders of the Mitchell Mining Company Wednesday evening at Gude's Hall, which was attended by several hundred persons, a proposition for each stockholder to advance to the company 20 cents on each share held by him was favorably acted upon. This course was adopted after an accounof the situation had been given by Mr John J. Cassidy, the temporary president and a report had been read of the investigation made by Thomas D. Wing of New York into the affairs of the com-

According to the statement made by Mr. Cassidy all the money had been spent and the company had debts pending, aggregating about $250,000, of which about $100,000 represented money advanced on notes by the directors; about $30,000, claimed by Mr. Mitchell, and $70,000 in unpaid claims against the company, some of which are pressing for payment. One claim, Mr. Cassidy said, was so urgent that the creditor had executed an attachment against the property in the offices of the company in New York.

To Meet Pressing Claims.

It was the opinion of the speaker that f at least $50,000 was raised at this t m t would be possible to meet the pressing claims. He said the directors were in negotiation with parties who would advance about $2,500,000 with which to pay off indebtedness, retire the bonds is ave a large cash balance with which to inish the railroad and develop the mines but that this syndicate had not yet come to terms on the proposition.

Mr. Cassidy proposed that the stockholders sign proxies for their stock, giv-ing the directors control, which would ing the property.

A special printed form of proxy wa passed to the stockholders present, and practically all of them signed these enable them to enter into arrangements with this syndicate with a view to secur-

Full Power to Vote. The proxy provides that John J. Gib-oons, J. A. I. Cassidy and F. Y. Robertson, or any one of them, have full power to vote for the stockholder. It is also agreed that the stockholder shall deposit all his stock with some trust company. to be designated, subject to the provisions of such plan of reorganization as may be adopted, taking therefor the negotiable receipt of the trust company, and that he further agree to accept in exchange for his stock one-half the num ber of $10 shares or an equal number of $5 shares, on condition that at least $2,000,000 new capital be provided for he development of the company's property Two shares of stock will be issued for one of the present issue, with a pur value of $5 instead of $10 a share. The stockholders of record will be given share for share of the new stock. One half of the new shares will thus be left in the treasury to become the property of the syndicate which advances the money

It is proposed that a canvass of the stockholders in this city shall be mad within the next few days to receive the subscriptions of 20 cents purchase, and that the other stockholders throughout the country shall be approached by cir-cular to make the same subscriptions.

UNIVERSALIST CONVENTION. such as to cause dissatisfaction. It is understood that the committee will Two Thousand in Attendance From All Parts of the Country.

PHILADELPHIA, October 25 .- The b!ennial session of the Universalist general convention opened here yesterday with prospects of drawing together one of the largest and most enthusiastic gatherings BALTIMORE, Md., October 23 .- All ar- in the history of the church. The sessions are being held in the Church of the Restoration, in the northern section of the n attendance.

The feature of yesterday's sessions was a minister's meeting, at which "Religious Education" was discussed. Lev. Henry Rose of Newark, N. J., presided at the meeting. Among the speakers were Rev. Thomas S. Robjent of Connecticut, Rev. F. L. Masseck and Rev. Arthur W. Grose, New York, and Rev. H. J. Cushman, D.D., of Rhode Island, The program included a devotional service, conducted by Rev. Isabella S. MacDuff of Maine.

The evening session opened with a devotional meeting, conducted by Rev. H. P. Taylor of Minnesota, followed by a platform meeting, with Rev. G. I. Keirn, D.D., of Indiana, presiding, at which addresses were made by Rev. Carl Henry of Maine, Rev. T. W. Illman and Rev. T. A. Bisbee of Massachusetts.

Big Canal Project Completed.

STERLING, Ill., October 25.-At 2 p. m. esterday T. J. Henderson touched a gate, which thereupon raised, permitting the water to flow through the Illinois-Mississippi canal. This marked the completion of the work on the $7,500,000 government undertaking which was started by Mr. Henderson twenty-five years ago. part that not a single share bought for Representatives Caldwell, Lowden and investment has been sold. Lorimer and Senator Hopkins, Gov. De neen and other prominent men were present and made addresses. The opening of the gate was witnessed by hundreds of people, many of who meame long dis-tances. A parade preceded the ceremo-

Nova Scotia Day at Jamestown. NORFOLK, Va., October 25. Nova Scotia lay was celebrated at the Jamestown exposition yesterday, with Gov. Frazier of that province the central figure. Many exchanges of international felicitations and the playing of "God Save the King" and "The Star Spangled Banner," with intermingled, were notable features. Gov. Frazier was the orator of the day. A military review followed the exercises in the auditorium. The weather was ideal.

Russia Wants Peace.

eign minister, who is making a tour of Europe, said:

wants peace. She is pursuing today a intention of securing them. A man thorough policy of peace. I am happy to doesn't put his neck into a noose withsay that the conversations that I have out a good premium, and in this case I had with rulers of Europe during this don't see the premium." had with rulers of Europe during this trip have shown me that the same desire dated Steamship Company, came out with reigns everywhere. Russia will pursue a statement declaring that the finances reigns everywhere. Russia will pursue the policy which will bring the greatest happiness and prosperity to the people."

Railroaders' Demands.

BUFFALO, N. Y., October 25 .- Repre-BUFFALO, N. Y., October 25.—Repredeclared, for stories consentatives of every railroad yard on the receivership proceedings. day a demand to the officials of

She Signed Actors' Names.

NEW YORK, October 25 .- A young J. P. Williams, through his attorney, night court last night, charged with sign- tive and same tariff reform. This Warner T. McGulinn, claiming $5,000 damages for alleged injuries to his son, Allen Williams. The defendant in the suit is Rupert W. Wright, who, the declaration the suit is represented by the sum of the names of prominent stage people for the same purpose for a year. She sold the tickets and pocketed the proceeds. The magistrate gave the woman a lec-

KNABE AND OTHER

PIANOS

EXCEPTIONAL BARGAINS IN SLIGHTLY USED PIANOS.

EASY TERMS. WM. KNABE & CO., 1218-1220 F Street N.W

> All My Excellent Stock of Hair Goods

Greatly Reduced $3.50, and $4.00 Switches now $2.50 and $3.00 Gray Switches, $4.75 now $1.00 all prices. $5.00 now $4.00.

$3.50, and $4.00 Switches now $2.50 and $3.00.
Gray Switches, $4.75 now $1.00, all prices, $5.00 now $4.00, $8.00 now $5.50.

Lee's Hair Medicant, $1 Restor's gray hair to natural color-GUARANTEED. Prevents fall ing hair.

Hairdressing, Shampooing, Dyeing and Bleaching

Dwarf Red Ink Pencil Demonstrated at

H. G. Wagner Photo Co., 938 F Street N.W.

Eggs Fresh Butter

HENRY REUTER, 300 G Street N.W.

Over 60 Years Established. THE ARTISTIC

GREAT BARGAINS

IN USED PIANOS

REMOVAL SALE.

Chas.M.Stieff,521 11th St. Future Home, 1008-10 F St. N.W. oc7-tf.28 J. C. CONLIFF, Manager.

OPINION AT PARIS. French Bankers Calmly Watching

House Cleaning in Wall Street. PAR.s. October 25.-The financial crisis in the United States is having a sentimental rather than a practical effect here. The papers are devoting much space to "The Wall Street Crash" and the "Slaughter of American Millionaires." and operators on the bourse are closely watching the situation. Naturally there is some apprehension, but the French bankers point out that there is little actual speculation here in American stocks, and that as American credit bills were practically rejected six months ago, they are in a position to witness "the house cleaning in Wall street" in a more or less impersonal way, Besides, they consider that the Amer ican financial conditions are sound at the base, and regard the crisis as being the inevitable cu.mination of an era of intense prosperity and over-sp cu.ation, helped along by the revelations of im-proper methods of finance and the position assumed by the authorities at Wash-

Some of the French bankers think President Roosevelt has gone too far, and that the whole fabric of American credit has been endangered, but the majority view "even the hero c el.m.nation of ques-tionable elements and methods" as being ultimately to the advantage of the United States, both at home and abroad.

A.though the French holders are some what nervous, they are not unloading American securities. Two of the largest American houses here, which were prepared to see scared share olders seil, re-

NOT BUYING OUT MORSE.

New Haven Railroad Does Not Want Consolidated Steamship Company. NEW YORK, October 25.-President Charles S. Mellen of the New Haven, after a conference in the offices of J. P. Morgan & Co. Tuesday, said that his company had not bought the Consolidated Steamship Company, any of its subsidiary companies or any other lines that Charles W. Morse controls. A report that Mr. Mellen was to secure some of the British and American national colors these properties for the New Haven through the banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co. had been extensively circulated.

"The Eastern Steamship Company and the Metropolitan Steamship Company are PARIS, October 25 .- In an interview the only Morse lines," said Mr. Mellen, recently M. Iswolsky, the Russian for- "which are at all competitors of the New Haven steamship properties. These lines would be of no advantage to the New "Russia does not want adventures; she Haven, and we have not the slightest Caivin Austin, pres.dent of the Consoliof the company, as well as of its sub sidiary concerns, were in good condition The decline in the bonds he attributed to the necessity of liquidation by individuals. There was no ground whatever, he

CLEVELAND FOR WHITNEY.

Expresses Interest in the Massachuse ts Campaign.

mand that the Lackawanna give the same accommodation in the way of mileage as is now given by the New York a similar proposition, naming an increase dent C eveland expressed his deep interest

"I suppose as usual you are in the thick of the political contest now pending in your state. I need not tell you how deeply I am interested in its progress and result. You know you firmly believe that the conwoman who gave her name as Olivia sistency, the frank honesty and the proud somewhat unusual suit was instituted Braughan, 223 West 24th street, was ar- patriotism of the democratic party are yesterday in the city court by William raigned before Magistrate Moss in the bound up in its insistence upon conserva-

support of the issue of tariff revision to brave and wise and steadfast, and It seems to me that the people of the state, regardless of party affiliation, should recognize that such an issue and such ommendation give this business steady, consistent increases. We offer you the best opti-

Rimless Eyeglasses for $1

send us on their rec-

KINSMAN. 908 F St. N.W.

-Beautiful Lamps. -Artistic Portab es. —Handsome Shades.

A Lamp or Porfable makes an admirable wedding pre-ent. You'll choose from a big variety of all that's new and beautiful in Lamps and Portables here. Reasonable Geo. Muth&Co. Formerly Ryneal's. 418 7th St.

New Pianos For Rent. W. F. Frederick Music Co. 1328 F Street.

1 Trustworthy Remedies!

Penn Rheumatism Gure. Penn Cherry Elixir. PENN BISHOP'S AM-DR-OU.

Guaranteed Under Serial No. 430.

matism and have not taken PENN RHEUMATISM CURE send for a generous Sample Box (tablet form) to test its curative properties. Penn Rheumatism Cure is prepared in Liquid form, large bottle, price, $1; Tablet form, 50c a bottle. All drug-PENN CHERRY ELIXIR is the best Cough and Cold Cure extant. As a safe, reliable and anodyne ex pectorant it has no equal. Sold verywhere at 25c a bottle.

PENN'S BISHOP'S AM-OR-OU, powerful reconstructive Tonic, ie Liquid being absolutely nonalcoholic. You can renew the strength of youth, because it con-tains the essential elements needed to replace weakness. A two days' treatment in tablet form will be sent free on application. Sold by all wide-awake druggists at $1 per

Our other preparations are just as efficacious as the above three leaders. Write for our Penn Al-

bottle, either Liquid or Tablet

Sold and Recommended by Henry Evans, 524 F street n.w.; People's Pharmacy. 524 7th st. n.w.; Modern Drug Store 7th and E sts. n.w.; O'Donnell, 904 F st. n.w.; Affleck, 1429 Penn. ave. n.w.; Chris-

PENN DRUG CO., PHILA., PA.

既然并未以於於於於於於於於於於於於於於於於於於於於 2

cal service obtainable-spe-

